HUERTA'S FAMILY LEAVE MEXICO CITY

Carranzistas Get Closer to Capital at Each Engagement.

REFUGEES ON TRAMP.

Some, it is Said, Intend to Seek Safety On United States Battleship As Soon as Possible.

Mexico City, Dec. 9.—Evidences have appeared on every hand to indicate that Provisional President Huerta is preparing for the worst. Most of the members of his family are in flight already from the capital, and there is a general movement of the government's supporters toward the border as the rebels close in on Mexico City.

The President's household went to Guadaljara, the capital of the State of Jalisco, from where it was said they would go to the Pacific port of Manzanillo, in the state of Colima. The party included Captain Luis Fuentes, President Huerta's son-in-law; Mrs. Fuentes and Miss Elena Huerta, another daughter. It was reported that the President's wife had left the capital. It was said that safety would be sought on an American battleship.

Eighteen former officials of the Huerta government who have been refugees at Nogales, Ariz., from Sonora since the constitutionalists defeated General Ojada in the battle of March 13, have left for Laredo, Tex., in obedience to orders from Mexico City. Other former federal officials in the territory controlled by the insurgents have received orders to proceed to Mexican border points.

Presidio, Tex., Dec. 9.—The complete rout of Huerta's Federal army in Northern Mexico, with the frantic flight of his generals for safety to the border, and the demoralization of the unpaid troops, was established with the arrival at Ojinaga, Mex., opposite Presidio, of the civilians and soldiers who deserted Chihuahua City.

In the remarkable hegira which struggled for eight days over an 185-mile trail through the desert and endured great hardships for want of food and water, were General Salvador Mercado, Huerta's deposed military governor and commander of the Federal troops in the north; General Pascual Orozo, General Caraveo, General Ynez Salazar and a host of subordinate officers.

They had deserted their posts in fear of General Francisco Villa's rebel army and virtually had surrendered to the rebels at Chihuahua, the State capital, and the largest of the far northern cities.

Along with them came, burdened with what property they could carry, men, women and children, representing some of the richest families in the republic, many of them afoot. Their flight with the army was in the face of reports they might expect no mercy should they fall into the hands of the rebels. Luis Terrazas, a wealthy land owner, reputed to own half of the State of Chihuahua, was said to have brought with him a vast fortune in cash, fearing it might be looted by the rebels if he remained in the evacuated city.

Witnesses viewing the oncoming throng from the hills at Ojinaga, reported the refugees were scattered in a thin line for several miles into the interior and that the dusty confusion of broken-down wagons, disabled artillery and mingling of disheartened soldiers and famished civilians as they slowly moved over the desert, presented a spectacle of universal despair.

The fear of being unable to keep pace with the escorting army, of being lost on the desert or caught by the rebels added to the miseries of so precipitate a flight and kept the refugees in almost a continuous frenzy.

Their arrival in a panic, but unmolested by the rebels, formed one of the most tragic incidents of the present revolution.

Master Charles West who has been quite sick at his home in south Royal street for the past three months, is able to be out again.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Two men were killed and six others were injured by the storm which struck New York city yesterday. A 60-mile-an-hour gale swept down from the northwest forcing down the temperature twenty degrees and putting a thin coating of ice on all standing water in the city. The first victim of the belated cold weather was John Flanagan forty years old, of Brooklyn, who succumbed while on his way home. Tony Carman was killed at New Brunswick, N. J., by falso work, which crashed through the roof of a two-story building on which he was working.

President Wilson looks upon the recent indictment of officers of the United Mine Workers at Pueblo, Col., as an answer to criticism that the sundry civil bill exempts labor unions from the operation of the Sherman antitrust law The President made it clear yesterday that the initiative in the prosecution came neither from the Department of Justice nor the United States attorney at Pueblo, but was taken by the federal grand jury itself. When asked if the Department of Justice would take a hand in the case in view of the sundry civil bill's provision exempting labor unions from presecution through the use of a certain $300,000 fund, President Wilson recalled to his visitors the memorandum he wrote when he signed the bill, and reiterated that the special fund affected was only for employing special counsel and did not affect the ordinary processes of the Department of Justice.

David Morgan, a railroad engineer, was killed and ten others were injured in a riot in Braddock, near Pittsburgh, Pa., precipitated by the attempt of Morgan and two companions to elbow their way through a crowd of foreigners to avoid stepping into mud. The foreigners turned on the three and a general fight began. Morgan was stabbed in the groin and fell dead.

Forty lives are known to have been lost in the flooded districts of Texas. Unofficial reports say that many more have perished during the last twelve hours. It is believed that fully 500 have been lost since the floods began. Twenty were drowned when the crest of the flood struck Brookshire yesterday.

John B. Yoder and Dorothy Lester, of Homewood Pa., and his fiance were crossing the tracks at Homewood Station, Sunday night when a fast passenger train turned the curve and was upon them before they realized their danger. Yoder was waking on the ties outside the rails and Miss Lester was walking between the rails. Like a flash Yoder jumped at his sweetheart and violently pushed her off the track just as the big locomotive hit him. Miss Lester escaped with but a few bruises, while Yoder was instantly killed.

With the bodies of forty olizzard victims awaiting burial with the streets blockaded and the cemeteries isolated, Denver, Colo., is facing a situation unprecedented in American cities. Although thousands worked on the streets yesterday in an effort to open passageway for vehicles, but little progres was made in removing the great quantities of snow, and it was announced that it will be impossible to hold any funerals for at least a week. The bodies of the dead lie in their homes, unembalmed because of the impossibility of undertakers to move hearses to the residential districts.

Wm. A. Jester, a town councilman of Delaware City, was killed and several other persons, including his son, William B. Jester, were injured at Reybold yesterday, when an automobile in which they were riding crashed into a train on the Delaware City branch of the Delaware Railroad.

The militant suffragettes who are avenging the re-arrest of Mrs. Pankhurst with the torch switches their attacks to religious property yesterday. A Parish house owned by the United Free Church of Scotland at Shandon, was partially destroyed by a fire set by the women.

Six men were killed and two were injured in an explosion of 700 pounds of gunpowder at the DuPont powdar works at Gibbstown, N. J, late yesterday.

TALKS OF MONEY VALUE OF HEALTH

Says Capital City of State Saved $75,000 During Last Year.

ASSAILS THE SALOON.

One Speaker Declares Old Dominion Should Provide Homes For Victims of Dipsomania.

Newport News, Va., Dec. 9.—What the health departments of the cities of Virginia are doing to keep down disease and the need of a strong public backing for those departments, was told in addresses before the annual State Conference of Charities and Corrections at the Academy of Music tonight by Dr. E. C. Levy, Chief Health office of Richmond, and Dr. Thomas J. Pretlow, health officer of Newport News.

Dr. Levy declared that the health Department of Richmond saved the city $75,000 last year in preventing disease. Deaths from typhoid fever had been reduced to twenty-three for the year, whereas normally the deaths would have been at least fifty showing that twenty-seven lives had bone saved by preventive measures. He compared results in cities with efficient departments and in thos without departments, showing that a well-equipped health department is a great asset to any city.

R. K. Flanagan, of Richmond, led a general discussion on health departments for cities, and the night's program closed with an illustrated lecture on "The Care of the Feeble-Minded," by Mr. Johnson, director of the extension department training school, at Vineland, N. J.

Justice J. J. Crutchfield of Richmond will come here tomorrow morning to give a session of the Juvenile Court in the Corporation Court room. This session of the conference will be on the child-welfare problem.

In his address at the opening speech of the conference, President W. A. Cooper, of Danville, attacked the saloon as the cause of 85 per cent of all the crime committed in Virginia, urged the appointment by the State Legislature of a committee to study charity conditions in the State, and urged the establishment of a home for inebriates where they can be cured and given a fresh start in life.

"If the State is to license the saloons, it should provide homes for the care of the victims of the saloons," declared the speaker.

John Golden, superintendent of the Associated Charities, of this city, led the discussion on charity work in cities This discussion was general, various ideas being presented by the speakers.

At a session this morning at the Young Men's Christian Association, Mrs. Henry Le Schmel, of Hampton, made a plea for a home for the unfortunate negro girls of the State. She asked aid for the organization which is now trying to purchase a farm near Richmond, on which it is proposed to erect such a home.

Mrs. Kate Pleasants Minor, of Richmond, discussed "State Provision for the Feeble-Minded" in the afternoon. a meeting in the interest of the negro charity wards of the state was held, Rev. W. H. Stokes, of Richmond, discussing "The Solution of the Colored Man's Problem" and Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, of Alexandria, speaking on "The Mother and Her Anonymous Child."

About 100 visitors are attending the conference, among them being some of the leading preachers of Virginia.

Declared Insane.

Harrisonburg, Va., Dec. 9.—E. N. Claire, a young man just arrived from Chicago, intending to go into business here, was arrested Sunday on complaint of numerous women of high standing, some of them married, that he had made improper proposals to them. His propensity to such behavior attracted such attention that his sanity is doubted, and a commission of lunacy was summoned. He was declared insane and will be taken to the Western State Hospital at Staunton.

LAW DECLARED INVALID

Cities Will Retain Tax on Rolling Stock of Railroads As Heretofore

(Special Dispatch to Gazette.)

Richmond, Va., Dec. 9.—In its decision to be formally announced tomorrow morning the State Corporation Commission will hold that the law which was aimed to take the tax on rolling stock of railroads from the localities in which their principal offices are located is unconstitutional. The decision will allow the cities to retain the tax as heretofore, thus denying the counties along the lines any division of the tax.

BAY MURDER SUSPECTED.

Captain Marks' Boat Found Blood-Stained—Owner And Negro Crew Missing.

Cape Charles, Va., Dec. 9.—Captain James Marks, aged 58 years, of Sanford, Va., owner of an oyster schooner plying between Sanford, Norfolk and Baltimore, whose boat was found adrift a few miles from Sanford Wharf, is supposed to have been murdered Saturday and his body disposed of by the two negro deckhands.

The schooner bore evidence of a struggle, the pillows in one of the cabins and the deck were covered with blood. Early in the fall Captain Marks hired three negroes. His last trip was a light one and he left one of the men home.

Since the tragedy the negro has confessed that the crew had plotted to take the captain's life and get his money.

Captain Marks was in Norfolk a week ago and delivered a check for $215, cashed it and took the money when he left Norfolk.

The negro has been taken to Norfolk to assist the police to find the suspect murderers. Marks' gasoline dory, which he towed with him on such trips, was missing when the schooner was picked up and it is supposed the murderers made their escape by using this boat.

BATTLE WITH NEGROES.

Merchant and Farmer Use Axe Handles Against Pistols.

Cape Charles, Va., Dec. 9.—Tobe Scott, a prominent merchant, and Grover Nottingham, a prosperous young farmer, both residing at Dalbays, six miles from Cape Charles, were shot by two negroes, Archie Fletcher and Sam Costen, at 9 o'clock Saturday night. Nottingham was shot through the thigh and Scott through the hand.

The negroes were in a heated argument, and were ordered out of Scott's store. They both took exception to what was said and a free-for-all fight ensued. Axe handles were used by the white men, and pistols by the negroes. Both negroes escaped and have not been apprehended, although a thorough search in the lower part of the country has been made.

BLIZZARD IN MOUNTAINS.

Nearly Zero Weather at Frostburg and Snow Delays Trains.

Cumberland, Md., Dec. 9. — The blizzard which came with suddenness late Sunday afternoon brought a drop of 30 in temperature in less than 24 hours, and caused much suffering among railroad men.

The snow drifted and greatly interfered with railroad schedules. Passenger trains came in from the west this morning three and four late and covered with snow and ice. Wires were blown down at some points. Conditions have improved tonight on both the Baltimore and Ohio and Western Maryland lines as far as the movement of trains is concerned, but the snow is still flying in the mountains.

At Thomas and Eikins the thermometers registered 18 above zero. The railroads have their snow plows in readiness. At noon today the thermometer stood 6 above zero at Frostburg. At some points the snowfall has reached nearly a foot.

HAVE ORDERED MORE SEALS

Anti-Tuberculosis Society Orders 100,000 More Red Cross Stamps.

DEMAND INCREASES.

Are Placed on Sale at Many Stores And Other Places in Alexandria, Where Great Interest is Shown.

Red Cross stamps have been placed on sale and distributed to scholars in the public schools who have been requested to dispose of the same. Great enthusiasm is shown in the schools, as the state offers a prize of $25 to the pupil who sells the greatest number and $5 to a piece to two selling the next highest number. The Alexandria Anti-Tuberculosis Society has offered a prize of $5 to the child who may sell the largest number of stamps though not winning a state prize; also a prize of $2.50 to a pupil of Washington and Lee schools who sells most stamps. Messrs. Swan Bro. have fixed up an attractive handkerchief booth at their store where the stamps will be sold.

The state prize last year was by Alexandria where the greatest number of stamps per capita was sold. A student of the Alexandria schools won the state school prize last year.

Three thousand four hundred persons died from pulmonary disease in Virginia last year, and the good work of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society should appeal to all.

Richmond, Dec. 9.—So great has been the demand for Red Cross Christmas seals being sold to defray the costs of the war against tuberculosis, that it has become necessary for the State Anti-Tuberculosis Association to order an additional 100,000. The sale of the little holiday stickers has already reached the enormous proportions of last year, and there is every indication that the final total will be far above that of 1912. The order for the new supply was placed yesterday.

Counting in the order for this lot, the association has up to this time had demands from workers throughout the State for 700,000 seals. While this number has been requested from the association, they have not all been sold by the agents as yet In event the workers succeed in disposing of all they have ordered, the proceeds will amount to $7,000. Each city and town is to profit by the sales made in it.

"It is gratifying to note the increased public interest in the war against the white plague," said an officer of the State Anti-Tuberculosis Association last night. "Increased sales of Christmas seals this year mean an awakened public conscience. To my mind, this growing support of the work is the first fruit of our campaign of education. People are beginning to realize the mendacity of the scourge."

The Christmas seals, which are, of course, useless for postage, cost 1 cent each, and are intended to be placed on the back of holiday mail. The public is cautioned to remember that mail bearing Christmas seals of any kind on the address side will be held up by the postal authorities.

Officer Kills Negro.

Bristol, Va., Dec. 9.—In an effort to escape after being surrounded in a Broad street house at 1 o'clock Sunday morning, Paul Smith, a negro, aged twenty, was shot to death by the police. Smith dealt Policeman Charles Nuckells several blows when the officer seized him, and was getting away in his night clothes when shots from Officer Nuckells's and Morton's revolvers brought him down. He was shot through the heart. The officers were not searching for Smith, although he was wanted for escaping the chain gang.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The alarm of fire late yesterday afternoon was caused by a burning chimney of a house on south Alfred street.

The annual election of officers of Alexandria Council, 627, Royal Arcanum, will be held tonight in their hall on King street.

The largest euchre party ever given in Alexandria was held last night in the Elks' Hall when over 300 people played. The prizes were unusually handsome. Following the euchre a dance was given. Walter M. Donnelly was chairman of the committee.

Mrse. Rosa A. Penn, widow of Arthur Penn, forty-one years old, died yesterday at her residence, 428 north Alfred street. She is survived by three daughters and one son.

A deed was filed with the clerk of court today by Edward McDermott, conveying a half interest in the house and lot at 1217 Queen street, to John C. McDermott.

AUDITOR PRICE'S REPORT.

The report of E. F. Price, auditor, of the receipts and expenditures of the city for the year commencing June 1, 1912, and ending May 31, 1913 is being distributed. The book was printed and bound by the Barrett Press.

Heretofore the bulk of this exhibit has been printed in the Gazette during the latter part of June of each year, but as the Gazette had a competitor in bidding for the work this year, it was decided not to award a contract for publishing the yearly exhibits; hence the report this year is six months behind the usual time.

COUNCIL MEETS TONIGHT.

The City Council will hold its regular semi-monthly meeting tonight at which time it is expected that there will be an adjournment taken until after the Christmas holidays. RUSH TO PAY TAXES.

When City Treasurer Thomas W. Robinson, closes his office tonight it is expected that the number of citizens who have paid their capitation tax will equal that of last year. There was a heavy rush of belated tax payers to his office today. Today is the last day on which taxes can be paid to permit voting in the municipal elections next spring and summer.

SUFFRAGISTS ARE DISAPPOINTED

President Wilson's Firm Refusal Blasts Hopes of The Women.

LEAVE DISCOURAGED.

Executive Says he Cannot Recommend Amendment to Constitution For Equal Suffrage.

Washington, Dec. 9.—President Wilson told the fifty-five delegates of the National American Woman's Suffrage Association that he could not, under the policy he has outlined for himself, make any specific representation to congress in regard to an amendemnt to the federal constitution, providing for equal suffrage.

President Wilson made it clear to the deputation that his private opinions, views, or desires, were not the basis for his public utterances as a representative, either of the whole people, or of his party, and that he could not suggest to congress legislation dealing with changes in the fundamental law not previously presented for general consideration through the medium of party platform pronouncements.

The President did not give the suffragists even the satisfaction of knowing what his personal views on the subject are. The effect of his statement to them was to throw the burden of the equal suffrage question on the back of the Democratic party itself. Members of the delegation plainly were dissatisfied with the result of their visit, and some of them were inclined to characterize the president's attitude as evasive.

This statement by the president, however, has a broader significance than its mere relation to the suffrage question. It commits Mr. Wilson to the policy of recommending to congress in the next three years only such subjects as are included in the Baltimore platform.

MYSTERY ABOUT FIRE AT SEA.

Wireless Reports Still Persist Vessel is the Rio Grande.

Norfolk, Va., ec. 9.—Mystery surrounding the reported rescue of 197 passengers from the Mallory liner Rio Grande during a fire at sea north of the Diamond Shoals early Sunday remained unsolved today, and though the wireless of the South Atlantic coast was reaching out for information none was obtained to clear up several conflicting reports.

Although a wireless from Virginia Beach to New York late Sunday night reported Captain Doage, of the British steamer Swanmore, having made the rescue, the Swanmore is at her wharf at Baltimore. The captain of the Merchants and Miners' liner Suwanee, which was in the vicinity, was spoken late last night by the Charleston (S. C.) wirless and replied he knew nothing of the affair. The Suwanee sailed yesterday from Savannah for Baltmire.

Agents of the Mallory Line say the Rio Grande was not licensed to carry passengers and therefore the passengers could not have been taken from that ship.

The Rio Grande today was on her way to Brunswick, Ga., with passengers aboard, according to wireless.

One possible solution appeared to be in the British steamer Quermore, which passed from Baltimore out the Virginia capes Saturday night and probably would have been near the scene of the reported fire. She has wireless, but had not been reached today.

The following wireless was today received from Hatteras:

The revenue cutter Seminole started to the assistance of the Rio Grande, reported on fire 205 miles northwest of Diamond Shoals, but was advised the steamer was now all right and proceeding on her way south under her own steam. Fire is out.

"I believe the General Assembly should select a commission (partly legislatice and partly otherwise) to whom the matter of taxation, in all its phases, should be referred, with directions to report a complete plan with bills prepared to put into operation the plan, and that such a commission should report to an extraordinary session to be held not earlier than November 1, 1914."

John W. May chairman of the special committee which has been considering this matter, made an exhaustive report, showing that he had given the subject close study. The report was adopted.

RECENT CAR ROBBERIES

Five Indictments Returned by the Grand Jury Today

A sweeping investigation of the recent car robberies in Alexandria, which have been increasing rapidly within the last few months despite the efforts of Pinkerton, special railway agents and the Alexandria police department to break up the gang which seems to be at work, was commenced this morning by the grand jury of the Corporation Court, with Robert S. Barrett as foreman. A large number of witnesses including a number of saloon men in the outskirts of the city, proprietors of second hand stores and railway employes had been summoned and the jury took considerable time in going into the matter.

When the grand jury adjourned yesterday they asked Judge Barley for instructions relative to the right of shippers to leave loaded cars standing on sidetracks in the city without being properly locked or watched which has resulted in the police department being compelled to use several of its men for the purpose of watching the cars, thus taking away a portion of the force which should be used in other sections of the city. Judge Barley promised to instruct the jury fully on this point today.

Commonwealth Attorney Samuel G. Brent presented to the jury a number of indictments against men who are supposed to have a hand in the wholesale robbery of cars and the disposal of the stolen goods. Warrants have been issued against six men, five of which have been arrested. men—Chas. Sorrell, John Peverill, Edward Harrison and Edward Waters and James Mason. The first four are white men and the last named is colored. George S. Finch, the proprietor of a saloon, in which were found a quantity of stolen goods is still confined to his residence.

The grand jury brought in the following recommendation:

"The grand jury finds that the law and order of the city is being endangered by the use by Swift & Co., of cars as a warehouse at the corner of Prince and Union streets, said cars being permitted to stand at that point for indefinite periods without sufficient protection by Swift & Co., and in consequence said cars have been robbed and the authorities have been compelled to provide special attention to this condition, to the detriment of other portions of the city. The grand jury recommends that the court take such steps as may be necessary to remedy the condition".

The grand jury brought in four true bills against George Finch, four against Edward Waters, four against James Mason, four against John Peverill, and one against Hugh L. Strider. The jury subsequently adjourned.

Hugh L. Strider appeared before Judge Barley this afternoon, and gave bail in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance before the January term of court.

H. Noel Garner and L. N. Duffey were appointed by the court counsel for Louis A. Tucker, indicated for housebreaking. His counsel will ask that an investigation of the sanity of the accused be made.

HOPES FOR EARLY TRIAL.

Chaloner is Notified That his Case Will Come up in Ninety Days.

Richmond, Dec. 9.—Unless unforeseen, legal hitches prevent, John Armstrong Chaloner told his Rex Theatre audience last night that his long-delayed case will come up for a hearing in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals of New York within the next ninety days. A communication just received from his lawyers, he said, brings the news that a re-arrangement of the docket in accordance with the new simplification of Federal court procedure promises the trial of his cause at an early date.

Mr. Chaloner announced in high spirits to his faithful mass-meeting club the favorable change in his fortunes. Once before the Court of Appeals, he said, there will be no difficulty in forcing a trial in the lower Federal court, over which Judge Holt presides. His case, he thought, should be called in the lower court not later than the June or next fall terms.

The immediate question at issue said Mr. Chaloner, once the case is before the lower court, will be whether or not he is now sane. On this point, he said, there will be no room for difference because the United States Appellate Court in New Yorkk has already held that the verdict of the Circuit Court of Albemarle county, Va., declaring him possessed of sound mind, cannot be disregarded.

Judge Holt, said Mr. Chaloner, will not be able this time to deny him relief in the Federal courts of New York, as he has thus far succeeded in doing. With his sanity established he will be able to call to his aid the constitutional diverse citizenship provision giving the citizen of a different State the right to carry his cause into the Federal courts whenever the amount involved exceeds $2,000.

Elopement in Harrisonburg.

Harrisonburg, Va., Dec. 9.—After living with her second husband, Jas. E. L. Hughes, of Harrisonburg, only a few months, the wife, formerly Mrs. Erle Hite Sager, eloped with a Harrisonburg drug clerk, a mere youth, named Carroll F. Yancey. The couple went to New York, and have posed there as Mr. and Mrs. Yancey.

Judge Haas, in Circuit Court, has just granted Hughes an absolute divorce. The younger man was a friend of one of Hughes' children, and in that way became a visitor at the home.

Earthquake Shocks

A thousand inhabitants of Messina spent last night in the streets through the panic caused by the most violent earthquake since the catastrophe of 1908. The shocks, which are described as a series of bumps, were felt equally on the mainland, particularly at Reggio, which suffered severely in 1908.

ENGINE BLOWS UP.

Fatal Accident on Norfolk and Western Yesterday.

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 9.—Engine 549, attached to train No. 15, blew up Sunday morning at 7:15 o'clock about a quarter of a mile east of Willis, twenty miles from Bluefield, on the Norfolk and Western, killing Fireman C. M. Virts, of this city, but causing no other injuries, so far as can be ascertained.

According to reports received at the general offices of the Norfolk and Western, the accident occurred while the engine was in motion and resulted from the blowing down of the crown sheet. The engine did not leave the track and no damage was done to any other part of the train or to any person upon it.

DON'T DOPE WITH ALCOHOLIC "TONICS."

This is honest advice for you who are run down and sick—don't dope with alcoholic "tonics." We're backing this advice with our personal guarantee of satisfaction to you, or your money back.

There are a lot of so-called "tonics" on the market that do not depend for their short-lived popularity on any real merit they possess, but upon the fact that the alcohol in most of them and the dangerous or habit-forming drugs in some of them give a few moments' exhilaration and liveliness after a dose is taken. After a while, even this effect ceases to take place, and the unfortunate patient, worse off than before, turns for relief to something else.

Don't dope yourself with such stuff. Take real medicine that will do you real good, that will supply to your system the strengthening, disease-relieving and disease-resisting ingredients it needs. Take Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion, and get well and keep well. It is a real blood and nerve-food medicine. It contains no alcohol nor any other dangerous or habit-forming drugs, but is made entirely from ingredients needed to build up the strength and health of the ailing.

You who are weak and run-down, and you who are apparently well now, but are liable to suffer from various cold weather ailments, use Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion to get and keep well and strong. For the tired-out, run-down, nervous, emaciated or debilitated—the convalescing—growing children—aged people—it is a sensible aid to renewed strength, better spirits, glowing health.

Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion—king of the celebrated Rexall Remedies—is for freedom from sickness of you and your family. Pleasant-tasting—unlike the cod liver oil preparations—you'll be as enthusiastic about it as we are when you have noted its strengthening, invigorating, building-up, disease-preventing effects. If it does not help you, your money will be given back to you without argument. Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store—one of more than 7,000 leading drug stores in the United States, Canada and Great Britain. William P. Taylor, 616 King street, Alex, Va.

SENATOR SWANSON'S SPEECH YESTERDAY.

The material points in the speech delivered in the Senate yesterday by Senator Swanson, of Virginia, were plain statements of facts in connection with the currency issue which could not be gainsaid or resisted. The Senator's charge that Wall street was directly the cause of the money panic of 1907 was not disproved, although attempts were made to break the force of the Senator's facts and figures. His quotations from the Comptroller of the Currency fully sustained the allegations he made. Senator O'Gorman, who undertook to refute the charges made by the junior senator from Virginia, was virtually driven to the wall, his reply to Mr. Swanson's facts and figures was that the Comptroller's statistics were incorrect, which showed that he had availed himself of the only shelter.

Mr. Swanson's speech in full would occupy two pages of the Gazette. It shows that the Senator has made a close study of his subject, and that he was armed with data and was ready to answer any question which might be propounded, as he was in a position to prove all assertions he made.

Senator Swanson further asserted that the New York bankers had absorbed the reserves of the country banks, and then refused the demands of the latter to return the money when the panic came at which time the New York banks held $224,000,000 of reserves of their own, and owed the country banks nearly $410,000,000. This statement brought on the colloquy between Senators Swanson and O'Gorman, of New York.

SCIENTIFIC MANAGEMENT OF CHRISTMAS.

The New York Evening Post makes the following observations on the season in which the world has just entered:

"It has long been felt that something should be done to curb the excesses of the Christmas spirit. Beginning about a month before the 25th of December, a large part of the world falls victims to the most extravagantly benevolent impulses. The stores become filled with jostling crowds of careworn irritable persons who glare at one another and exhaust their ingenuity in efforts, usually vain, to get the clerks to pay some attention to them. The evenings of the average homes are given over to discussions, now and then verging upon the acrimonious, as to what presents shall be purchased and where they shall be sent. This is often varied by conjectures as to what it likely to be received, and from whom. It is an inspiring spectacle. Everybody is thinking about giving. Finally, the long-waited day arrives. The packages are opened. The mystery whether Cousin Kate would send anything or not is cleared up, leaving such residuum af satisfaction or regret as befits a good or a bad guess regarding her probable action. With the strain of all these decisions removed, and their consequences known, there ensues a brief period in which people give way even more completely to the impulses of good-will. They exchange greetings with some show of warmth, inquire after the prosperity of those who do them any small service, and forget, for the moment, that business is business, and that life is short. It is sometimes as much as ten days after Christmas before normal conditions are restored.

"Will our descendants believe that it was not until the second decade of the twentieth century that the world became aroused to the viciousness of this annual debauch of kindness? Will they believe that it was actually necessary to form societies in order to keep our better selves from getting the better of us? Such must be our humiliating confession. The first step toward scientific management of Christmas was the preparation of lists of gifts, so that no debt hanging over from the previous year should go unpaid. But this was not immediately followed by another. People were still so completely under the control of their unregulated impulses that they gave without thinking whether their gifts were useful or only representative of sentiment for fathers still bought drums and horns for sons who were in dire need of books on 'How to Study.' Mothers still presented their daughters with dolls instead of copies of the election laws. And the amount of candy sent round, from hand-painted ones to those bought by the gross, staggers the imagination. From this intemperance of generosity we are just emerging. Its shadow is yet over us, so that we are not always sure of the distinction between the useful and the sentimental. But we are learning."

GUARDS VIRGINIA SCENERY.

National Commission Will Reserve the Natural Bridge Area.

Washington, Dec. 9.—The national forest reservation commission, charged with the purchase of lands in the Appalachian and White Mountains for watershed protection purposes yesterday began purchasing tracts on the Saco watershed in the White Mountain area, and yesterday it acquired about 9,300 acres, of which 4,300 are in the town of Jackson.

The commission approved for purchase several tracts in the Natural Bridge area of Virginia, including a tract of 1,800 acres across, entirely surrounding the well-known Peaks of Otter. The purchase of these mountains, which have been used for a long time by the public for scenic and recreation purposes, has been under consideration for several months.

HOW TO TAKE GOOD CARE OF YOUR HAIR.

Nothing spoils your good looks so much as homely hair—stringy, dull-colored, harsh Nothing adds to good looks so much as beautiful hair—soft, silky, wavy and glossy. No matter how beautiful your hair is now, you can improve its good looks by using Harmony Hair Beautifier. If your hair is homely and ugly now, Harmony Hair Beautifier will make it softer, silkier, glossier, more beautiful in every way. It also makes it easier to put up and helps it to "stay put." Its rich rose odor hides the unpleasant, oily smell of the hair. Harmony Hair Beautifier is rightly named; it beautifies the hair.

Very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. It contains no oil and will not change the color of the hair nor darken gray hair.

To keep your hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This pure liquid shampoo gives an instantaneous rich lather that immediately penetrates to every part of hair and scalp, insuring a quick and thorough cleansing. Washed off just as quickly, the entire operation takes only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair; leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet-smelling cleanliness.

Both preparations come in old-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00, Harmony Shampoo, 50c both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way or your money back. Sold in this community only at our Store—The Rexall store—one of the more than 7,000 leading drug stores of the United States Canada and Great Britain, which own the big Harmony Laboratories in Boston, where the many celebrated Harmony Perfumes and Toilet Preparations are made. RENOUNCES CATHOLIC CHURCH

Priest Takes Whole Congregation into Episcopal Fold

South Bend, Ind., Dec. 9.—Renouncing his faith in the Catholic Church and also his title as bishop in the National Catholic Church of America, which he had organized here after his controversy with Bishop H.J.Aldering, of Fort Wayne, the Rev. Victor Von Kubinyi and his entire congregation of more than 200 marched into St. James' Episcopal church of this city Sunday and embraced the Episcopal faith. Von Kubinyi was immediately ordained an Episcopalian rector.

Two years ago he had trouble with Bishop Alerding, which at one time led to riots here between his supporters and those of the bishop.

Von Kubinyi said he withdrew some time ago from the Catholic Church and founded the National Catholic Church. He admitted, however that his withdrawal carried ex-communication.

At the time of his withdrawal an effort was made to have the priest ordained in the Episcopal faith, but was vetoed by Bishop James Hazen White Von Kubinyi then organized the National Catholic congregation and for some time preached to his flock on a vacant lot, until he was able to obtain a building.
